

Le Serpent Rouge And Boudet's Treasure

As detailed in today's note 'Jean-Jacques Henri Boudet And The RLC Treasure', Pierre Plantard documented in a 1978 preface to La Vraie Langue Celtique the benchmark value of 3679431 as follows: De 1887 à 1901, l'abbé Boudet verse à Mlle Denarnaud des sommes très importantes: 3679431 francs qui financent la réfection de l'église de Rennes-le-Château et d'autres travaux!

In an earlier note, 'Le Serpent Rouge And Saga-Shakespeare Myth', of July 17, 2003, the Cipher Values of the thirteen verses of Le Serpent Rouge were shown to be 2410516 and 2433930, with the latter Cipher Sum being larger than the former by the Cipher Value of a total of 23 X's added to the text without explanation or $23 \times 1018 = 23414$. (See Appendix I, pp. 3-8)

After finishing today's note, it occurred to the author to check whether the two Cipher Values of Le Serpent Rouge might have been anchored to the two Dedications of the First Folio of William Shakespeare's plays in the manner detailed in the note with respect to the Dedications of Bacon's Essays and the King James Bible, on the one hand, and the benchmark value, on the other hand.

Having already determined the Cipher Values of all the relevant texts for other purposes, it took the author only a few minutes to arrive at the results presented below in summary form.

1 Aquarius

Comme ils sont étranges les manuscrits de cet Ami,	= 22621
grand voyageur de l'inconnu, ils me sont parvenus séparément,	= 27592
pourtant ils forment un tout pour lui qui sait que les couleurs	= 34910
de l'arc-en-ciel donnent l'unité blanche,	= 14359
ou pour l'Artiste qui sous son pinceau,	= 20561
fait des six teintes de sa palette magique, jaillir le noir.	= 24266

How strange are the manuscripts of this Friend, great traveller of the unknown, they appeared to me separately, yet they form a whole for him who knows that the colours of the rainbow give a white unity, or for the Artist for whom the black springs out from under his paintbrush, made from the six colours of his magic palette.

2 Pisces

Cet Ami, comment vous le présenter ?	= 16136
Son nom demeura un mystère,	= 12543
mais son nombre est celui d'un sceau célèbre.	= 18511
Comment vous le décrire?	= 11296
Peut-être comme le nautonnier de l'arche imperissable,	= 22663
impassible comme une colonne	= 12594
sur son roc blanc, scrutant vers le midi, au-delà du roc noir.	= 26909

This Friend, how to introduce him to you? His name remained a mystery, but his number is that of a famous seal. How to describe him to you? Perhaps like the pilot of the indestructible ark, impassive like a column on his white rock scanning towards the south beyond the black rock.

Dans mon pèlerinage éprouvant, je tentais de me frayer à l'épée	= 23983
une voie à travers la végétation inextricable des bois,	= 23897
je voulais parvenir à la demeure de la BELLE endormie en qui	= 22798
certain poètes voient la REINE d'un royaume disparu.	= 24117
Au désespoir de retrouver le chemin,	= 16258
les parchemins de cet Ami furent pour moi le fil d'Ariane.	= 22658 = 398672

During my testing pilgrimage I tried to clear a path with the sword, cossing the inextricable vegetation of the woods, I wanted to reach the residence of the sleeping BEAUTY in whom certain poets saw the QUEEN of a past realm. In desperation of finding my way again the parchments of this Friend were for me, the thread of Ariadne.

Thanks to him, from now on by measured steps and a sure eye, I can discover the sixty-four dispersed stones of the perfect cube that the brothers of the BEAUTY of the black wood escaping in the pursuit of the usurpers, had scattered on their way whilst they fled from the white Fort.

 Le cercle étant l'anneau et couronne, = 15148 et lui le diadème de cette REINE du Castel. = 15429

To reassemble the scattered stones, work with the square and compass to put them back in regular order, look for the line of the meridian in going from the East to the West, then looking from the South to the North, finally in all directions to obtain the desired solution, stopping in front of the fourteen stones with a cross. The circle being the ring and the crown, and to him the diadem of this QUEEN of Castel.

The stones of the mosaic paving of the sacred place could be alternatively black or white, and JESUS like ASMODEUS, observing their alignment, my view seems incapable of seeing the summit where the marvellous sleeping one remained hidden. Not being HERCULES with magic power, how to decode the mysterious symbols carved by the observers of the past. In the sanctuary however the stoup, fountain of love of the believers, reminds us of these words: BY THIS SIGN YOU SHALL CONQUER.

I was like the shepherds of the famous painter POUSSIN, confused in front of the enigma: "ET IN ARCADIA EGO..."! The voice of the blood [race] would it show me the image of an ancestral past. Yes, the light of the genius crossed my mind. I saw again, I understood! I knew now this fabulous secret. And marvellous, when from the leaps of the four horsemen, the shoes of one horse had left four imprints on the rock, here is the sign which DELACROIX had given in one of three pictures from the chapel of Angels. Here is the seventh sentence which a hand had traced: DELIVER ME FROM THE MIRE, SO THAT I DO NOT STAY THERE SINKING. Two times IS, embalmer and embalmed, miraculous vase of the eternal White Lady of Legends.

Celestial vision for him who remembers the four works of Em. SIGNOL around the Meridian line, to the choir itself from the sanctuary from which beams this source of love from one to another, I turn around passing the site of the rose of the P to that of the S, then from the S to the P ... and the spiral in my mind becoming like a monstrous octopus expelling its ink, the shadows obscure the light, I am dizzy and I hold my hand to my mouth biting instinctively my palm, perhaps like OLIER in his coffin. Curses, I understand the truth, HE IS GONE, but to him too in doing THE GOOD, like HIM of the flowery tomb. But how many have sacked the HOUSE, leaving only the embalmed corpses and numerous metal objects which they could not carry? What strange mystery conceals the new temple of SOLOMON built by the children of Saint VINCENT?
